The famous London Irish Centre has been a hub of activity since its doors opened in 1954. Continuing to offer a wealth of creative events from live music, comedy, theatre, workshops, rehearsals and much more. The calibre of artists performing here over the years is unprecedented, with Ed Sheeran, Ed Byrne, Niall Horan, and Luke Concannon (Nizlopi) just a few in recent months.

2020 will be our 5th year involved in this fantastic event and we can't wait to see what array of wonderful artists we get to support. Although we would very much like to accommodate as many Irish-related acts as possible we are a VERY inclusive venue, our doors are open to all.

With 4 diverse spaces available for hire and audience sizes ranging from 20 to 450 guests, no performance is too big or too small. All our rooms come with sound, projectors, staging blocks and are pre-set in a theatre style layout.

Aside from the amazing venue itself, a few other perks on bringing your performance(s) to the London Irish centre is that we will run your box office for you (you just check wristbands as guests enter the room), we don't take ANY commission on pre-sold tickets via Camden Fringe's website and we offer a minimum 2 hour slot – unlike your usual 1 hour get in/out.

In addition to that we also contribute up to 11% of all activity here to our venue partners, the London Irish Centre charity. Just by hosting your performance here you're actively supporting a very worthy cause.

We are located close the Camden Town Overground and a 10-minute walk from Camden Town and Kentish Town Tube stations.

We're operating Fringe from Sunday 9th until Sunday 23rd August 2020 – but are flexible.

Our Room rates are as follows:

The McNamara Suite - 450 Seater - (3 hour booking to include get in/out) @ £350.00 + VAT
The Presidential Suite - 120 Seater - (2 hour booking to include get in/out) @ £160.00 + VAT
The Tom Bugler Room - 45 Seater - (2 hour booking to include get in/out) @ £65.00 + VAT
The Old Chapel Room - 40 Seater - (2 hour booking to include get in/out) @ £65.00 + VAT
(Rates stated are per booking)

The venue is available for rehearsals at an additional cost.

Please contact David or Joe on the email above if you require further information or would like view the space.
