We're The London Irish Centre, nestled in the quiet leafy corner of Camden Square.

About 5 minutes walk from Camden Road overground station, we're both easily accessible from Camden Town underground (10 minutes walk) and many bus routes.

The London Irish Centre has been a hub of welfare and entertainment for over 60 years. Nowadays we host a variety of private events and performances on a regular basis.

We have five flexible spaces available, all of which can be configured to suit individual needs.
